STATE GOVERNMENTS

THE UNITED STATES
UNDER THE ARTICLES OF CONFEDERATION, 1787

- Each state setup its own written plan of government (constitution)
- Characteristics of these new governments:
  - Separation of powers: power was typically split between 3 branches of government
  - Property requirements were typical for voter eligibility
  - Many states included bill of rights that outlined basic freedoms (religion, trial by jury, etc.)
    - Virginia Statue for Religious Freedom by Thomas Jefferson
- Government was set up based upon republicanism (power comes from the people)
  - Debate over what republicanism would look like

KC-3.2.II.A Many new state constitutions placed power in the hands of the legislative branch and maintained property qualifications for voting and citizenship

KC-3.2.II.B The Articles of Confederation unified the newly independent states, creating a central government with limited power. After the Revolution, difficulties over international trade, finances, interstate commerce, foreign relations, and internal unrest led to calls for a stronger central government.

ARTICLES OF CONFEDERATION

- 1st national government of the United States
- Government could:
  - Conduct foreign policy, borrow money, make treaties
- Created a central government with limited power
  - Unicameral congress
  - No executive branch or court system
  - No power to tax
  - Could not regulate trade
- Other Problems
  - 9 votes out of 13 to pass laws
  - All states regardless of size had one vote
  - All 13 states must agree to amend the Article

  - Increased calls for a stronger central government

Big Idea(s) / Topics You Need Help With:

CREATING A NEW GOVERNMENT

Unit 3: Learning Objective:

Explain the differing ideological positions on the structure and function of the federal government.

- Growing demand to address the problems facing the nation (intl trade, finances, interstate commerce, foreign relations, & internal unrest)
- Annapolis Convention (1786): 5 states attend to discuss trade and commerce
  - Plan to meet up in Philly in 1 year
- Constitutional Convention (1787) meets for the purpose of revising the Articles
  - 55 delegates sent "for the sole and express purpose of revising the Articles of Confederation"
  - Very quickly they decided to create an entirely new stronger central government

KC-3.2.II.D : The Constitutional Convention compromised over the representation of slave states in Congress and the role of the federal government in regulating both slavery and the slave trade, allowing the prohibition of the international slave trade after 1808

Compromises of the Convention:

KC-3.2.II.C.i Delegates from the states participated in the Constitutional Convention and through negotiation, collaboration, and compromise proposed a constitution.

- Big issue at the convention was about representation in Congress
- James Madison introduced the Virginia Plan (Large State Plan)
  - Bicameral (2 house) legislature
  - Representation would be based on population size
- New Jersey Plan was favored by the small states
  - Unicameral (1 house) legislature
  - Each state would have equal representation
- Roger Sherman introduced the Great Compromise
  - Bicameral legislature
  - Upper house (Senate) 2 representatives per state
  - Lower house (House of Reps) based on population

COMPROMISES OVER SLAVERY

KC-3.2.II.D: The Constitutional Convention compromised over the representation of slave states in Congress and the role of the federal government in regulating both slavery and the slave trade, allowing the prohibition of the international slave trade after 1808.

- Debate over whether slaves should be counted in state population?
- 3/5th Compromise: slaves would be counted 3/5 of a person when deciding representation in the House of Reps.
- Slave trade allowed to continue until 1808
- Although the word "slave" or "slavery" was not used in the Constitution, the institution of slavery was very much protected by the original document
